MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Logistics

SUBJECT : Competitive Promotion Program

1. Your progress report of 12 March 1957 indicates your Office is presently engaged in the necessary preliminary planning for implementing the Competitive Promotion Program and until this phase is completed, promotions will be considered in accordance with previous policies and practices.

2. It is my desire that all of the Support Offices implement the Program for a major portion of their respective groups without delay and establish definite target dates for accomplishments which will bring the remainder of their personnel under the jurisdiction of the Program.

3. Since I am extremely interested in the implementation of this Program, I would appreciate a second progress report prior to 1 June 1957.
